Report of the Un-official Commission of Inquiry into the Riots in Calcutta on the 2nd, 3rd and 4th October, 1907.

The northern section of Calcutta was the scene of serious riots on the nights of the 2nd and 3rd and the morning of the 4th of October last. The reports published in the Press contained almost incredible accounts of acts of lawlessness on the part of the Police. It was stated, among other things, that they had stirred up the rowdy element of the city; and that in conjunction with budmashes, they had made wanton and unprovoked attacks upon Bengalis—residents and passers-by—and had looted and destroyed the property of some shop-keepers and others. Many well-known residents of Calcutta were also reported to have personally witnessed instances of such misconduct on the part of the Police. There was a widespread feeling of consternation among the Indian community with regard to the conduct of the Police in connection with these disturbances, and it was very generally desired that a full investigation should be made of the circumstances connected with the riots. In consequence of the statements made in the Press, the Government of Bengal deputed the Hon'ble Mr. E. W. Collin, I. C. S., Commissioner of the Presidency Division, to hold an inquiry into the occurrences. The Hon'ble Mr. Collin arrived in Calcutta from Darjiling on the 7th October, and held his inquiry on the two days following. The inquiry made by him was one to which the public and the Press were not admitted. The evidence of the few witnesses who were called for examination was taken hurriedly. Many witnesses who came forward to make their statements went away without making any, as they were not called at all, though they had waited for a long time. Many were not even aware that such an inquiry was in progress. Mr. Collin's inquiry was in every respect unsatisfactory, and the public felt that the whole truth had not been elicited. A further inquiry by a Commission (consisting of officials and non-officials) was called for, but as Government announced no intention of directing another and a fuller inquiry, it was thought desirable by the Indian community to hold an un-official inquiry. The holding of such an inquiry, without loss of time, was considered necessary in view of the daily increasing reports of injuries to person and property, sustained by innocent persons in the course of these riots at the hands of the Police and the budmashes, and the probable loss of material evidence with the lapse of time. We were accordingly approached by some leading Indian gentlemen to form ourselves into a Commission to hold the desired inquiry, and we thought it our duty to comply with the request.

2. We held six sittings, viz., on the 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 27th, and 29th of October last. Notices of the inquiry were published in the newspapers, and an intimation was sent to the Commissioner of Police to the effect that the Commission would be glad to record any evidence that might be tendered on behalf of the Police. No reply was received by us from the Commissioner of Police, nor was the Police represented at our inquiry. The inquiry of the 19th, 20th, 21st and 22nd October was held in the dispensary of Messrs. D. Gupta & Co. at No 369, Upper Chitpur Road, and of the 27th and 29th October in the house of Kumar Manmatha Nath Mitter Rai Bahadur at No 34, Champuker Street. These two places were selected on account of their being located in the centres of the disturbances.

3. We examined 173 witnesses on the six days, viz., 23 on the first day, 36 on the second, 48 on the third, 25 on the fourth, 35 on the fifth, and 6 on the sixth. The witnesses examined are shewn below according to their respective stations in life :—

4. The witnesses came forward voluntarily to make their statements, which were made after taking the most solemn declaration to tell the truth, and they were recorded and signed, as if made in judicial proceedings. The Police not being represented before us, we had not the advantage of seeing the tests of cross-examination applied to the evidence of the witnesses. No pains, however, were spared by us to elicit the truth by a close examination of the witnesses. The absence of cross-examination does not, however, appear to us to be of the same importance as it would be in an ordinary criminal trial, where the inquiry would be directed to the establishment of the guilt or innocence of a particular individual or individuals, and where, therefore, various questions affecting individuals such as motive, malice, identification, &c., might arise.

5. The inquiry held by us was welcomed by the general public, as witnesses came pouring in even after the conclusion of our proceedings. We believe that more evidence would have been forthcoming if we could see our way to prolonging the inquiry.

6. Some of the witnesses who appeared before us bore severe marks of personal injuries, and photographs of some of these witnesses were taken. The statements of the witnesses and the photographs referred to are appended to this report.

7. During the progress of our inquiry, we found that the Government of Bengal had ordered a further official inquiry, and had placed Mr. Donald Weston, I. C. S., the District Magistrate of Midnapur, who was lately Chief Magistrate of Calcutta, on special duty for that purpose. The Resolution of the Government of Bengal, bearing date the 18th October, 1907, was not seen by us prior to its publication in the Calcutta Gazette of the 30th idem, when our inquiry had been concluded. On Mr. Weston's arrival in Calcutta, we were asked to meet him individually, and as a result of the interviews, the following letter was addressed to him by the President on the 2nd November :—

DONALD WESTON Esq., I.C.S.

The 2nd November, 1907.

Dear Sir,

With reference to my conversation with you on Thursday last, I beg to inform you that I have a complete analysis of all the evidence recorded before the Un-official Commission, of which I was the President, with the names and addresses of all witnesses. In the letter of reference from Government, appointing you to hold a further inquiry into the late riots in Calcutta, I find it suggested that you might find the evidence recorded by the Un-official Commission useful. Should you desire to refer to the analysis of evidence, I shall be glad to forward to you a copy of the same.

Yours faithfully,

(Sd.) NORENDRONATH SEN.

Mr. Weston, in reply, however, asked for a copy of the whole evidence, recorded by the Un-official Commission, which was supplied to him only lately, as such evidence was in course of being printed.

8. We now proceed to deal with the evidence adduced before us. For the purposes of a clear analysis, the witnesses may be grouped as follows :—

Review of Evidence.

(A) Persons who were assaulted at or soon after the meeting of the 2nd October.

(B) Persons whose shops were looted on the 3rd and 4th October when there was no meeting of any kind.

(C) Passers-by who were assaulted on Thursday, the 3rd October.

(D) Persons who were themselves dragged by constables out of tram-cars on the 3rd October and were assaulted, or who saw others dragged out of tram-cars.

(E) Persons who witnessed assaults on others or saw shops being broken into or looted.

(F) Persons who were assaulted on Friday, the 4th October, or saw people being assaulted.

9. Witnesses who come in the group (A) are Nos. 1, 2, 4, 5, 8, 12, 13, 14, 16, 19, 20, 22, 24, 25, 30, 31, 34, 35, 37, 41, 46, 49, 50, 54, 56, 61, 67, 68, 74, 77, 79, 80, 82, 87, 95, 103, 104, 108, 112, 118, 120, 121, 122 and 127.

Among these are eight witnesses (Nos. 13, 14, 25, 30, 46, 56, 77 and 87) who were present at the Beadon Square meeting on the evening of the 2nd October. According to their evidence, it would appear that Inspector Fazil ordered the dispersal of the meeting when it was being addressed by a speaker, named Basudev. The Police cried out that brickbats were being thrown at them, but none of the witnesses before us saw any brickbats thrown.

10. Witnesses Nos. 1, 2, 4, 5, 8, 12, 16, 24, 30, 49, 54, 112, 121 and 122 speak to severe assaults on themselves by the Police and the budmashes. One of the men assaulted on the 2nd, named Rajani Kanto Ghose, died from the effects of his wounds (vide statements of witnesses Nos. 29, 61, and 62). The testimonies of these witnesses go to show that the Police committed indiscriminate assaults upon the people, and that the Bengalis were the chief object of their wrath. (Witness No. 8) Babu Kanai Lal Dey, a practising pleader of the Calcutta Small Cause Court, who had received very severe injuries, deposed to having heard the Police say, "Beat the Bengali Salas." His testimony was strongly corroborated by witnesses Nos. 10, 18, 20, 25, 30, 51, 53, 64, 70, 71, 74, 78, 79, 90, 92, 94, 95, 99, 104, 110, 116, 119, 120, and 126 whose statements referred to occurrences of all the three days.

11. In group (B) are witnesses Nos. 23, 26, 27, 33, 39, 44, 48, 59, 65, 66, 69, 71, 75, 76, 83, 88, 89, 91, 92, 96, 98, 100, 101, 102, 105, 109, 116, 123, 125, 126, 138, 139, 140, 153, 154, 158, and 171. It may be mentioned that witness No. 116 related a double attack on his shop—namely, one on the 3rd at 8 P.M. and another on the 4th at 1-30 A.M.

12. The approximate value of property looted in the shops, and of money seized from the persons of passers-by, was given to us as Rs. 33,345-13-6. Besides, ornaments, utensils, shop articles &c., were scattered and thrown away, involving no inconsiderable loss to the owners.

13. In group (C) are witnesses Nos. 3, 7, 36, 45, 51, 52, 55, 60, 64, 70, 73, 78, 86, 90, 93, 106, 110, 115, 117, 119, 124, 152, 155, 160, 161, 163, 168, 170 and 172.

The testimonies of these witnesses show that the conduct of the Police was exceedingly reprehensible in that people were assaulted simply because they happened to be Bengali Hindus.

14. In group (D) are witnesses Nos. 10, 28, 32, 57, 58, 63, 71, 72, 133, 135, 136, 144 and 169.

Some of these witnesses, it would appear, were proceeding home from their offices, and were dragged out of tram-cars, beaten and robbed.

15. In group (E) are witnesses Nos. 60, 85, 94, 111, 130, 134, 141, 142, 143, 145, 146, 147, 149, 156, 157, 159, 162, 164, 165, 166, 167 and 173.

The most remarkable statements under this head are those of Kumar Manmatha Nath Mitter Rai Bahadur (No. 167), Babu Jogendra Nath Bose (No. 173) and Babu Baidyanath Narain Singh (No. 85). All these were eye-witnesses of the assaults and looting. Kumar Maumatha Nath Mitter, who is a wealthy and prominent citizen of Calcutta and a grandson of the late Rajah Digumbar Mitter, C. S. I., offered his assistance to the Inspector of the Shampuker Thana to prevent the lawless acts, but that officer declined to take any action. His statement on this point is as follows:—

"I motored down to Shampuker Thana at 9-30 P.M. with three of my friends. There the Inspector was pointed out to me by a fat Jamadar. I asked him if he knew of the loot. He said 'yes'. Then I asked him what steps he had taken to prevent the looting and the beating. He said: 'What can I do, low-class people are looting'. I told him I would give him 30 or 40 of my men, if he was short of men, to quell the disturbance. I told him if he won't stir out, I would quell the disturbance with my own men. I was quite ready to help, but I might not be brought to book for it."

From the testimony of Babu Baidyanath Narain Singh, M. A., who is a Behari graduate and Zemindar, it would appear that the Police were bent upon assaulting Bengali Hindus only.

16. In group (F) are witnesses Nos. 113, 128, 129, 132, 137, 148, 150, 151, and 162. The statements of these persons show that there was no justification whatsoever for the acts of lawlessness on the part of the Police, two days after the Beadon Square meeting. The assaults by the Police would appear to have been continued up to 1 P.M., on Friday, the 4th October, (vide statement of witness No. 129).

17. Witnesses Nos. 33, 47, 54, 76, 96, 104, 117, 123, 129, 131, 137, 150, 151 and 162 stated that they could identify some of the members of the Police force who were concerned, directly or indirectly, in the unlawful acts. One of these, Shaik Samer, (No. 33) is said to have identified a Jamadar of the Kumartoli Thana before the Hon'ble Mr. Collin.

18. Some of the witnesses examined by us had been previously examined by the Hon'ble Mr. Collin (Nos. 4, 5, 7, 11, 33, 38, 45, 48, 51, 60, 65, 69, 76, 96, 98, 116, 135 and 158); but they stated that their statements had not been fully taken. Some witnesses (Nos. 1, 8, 9, 12, 54, 66, 75, 100, 101, 102 and 169) were present at Mr. Collin's inquiry, but were not called.

19. Specially remarkable were the statements of witnesses Nos. 110, 137 and 162 who stated that they had not lodged any complaint against the Police, because they had understood that they would not get any redress, as it was the Police by whom or under whose instigation the Bengalis were beaten and robbed.

20. It was deposed before us that whenever any appeal was made to the Police for protection, the latter taunted the aggrieved by such remarks as the following: "Cry Bande Mataram," "Go away—go to the Bande Mataram-wallahs," "What shall we do?" &c. (vide statements of witnesses Nos. 23, 26, 39, 47, 67, 71, 75, 89, and 96).

21. Of the 173 witnesses examined by us, 104 were assaulted. Of those assaulted, some are proved to have been robbed, and a few stripped even of their wearing apparels.

22. Having carefully considered the statements of the witnesses, which are corroborated by marks of violence personally seen by us in many cases, and noted in the evidence, and having regard to the fact that some of the aggrieved persons lost no time in applying to persons in authority for redress, but without any success, and remembering further that none of these witnesses had any motive whatever for falsely implicating the Police, we see no reason whatever to doubt the truth of the general narrative.

23. The evidence produced before us consists of the testimonies of a large number of eye-witnesses, some of whom hold responsible posts or occupy respectable positions in society; and they corroborate one another on all material points. We find the following facts proved by what we consider to be overwhelming evidence :—

(1) That the breaking up of the Beadon Square meeting on the evening of the 2nd October was followed by a general assault on Bengalis by members of the Police force, chiefly constables; that, in addition to personal injuries, shops were broken into, damaged and plundered, and innocent passers-by were robbed, beaten and subjected to various indignities by members of the Police force, chiefly constables.

(2) That on the following day, Thursday, the 3rd October, lawlessness reached its climax; that the Police force which mustered strong, was reinforced by large numbers of low-class people, such as mehters, dhangars, sweepers, &c., and that shops and houses were broken into, property looted and damaged, tram-cars invaded and the passengers dragged out, beaten and robbed, and innocent passers-by subjected to similar treatment.

That the aggressors were the Police and the low-class people referred to above, individually in some cases, and conjointly in others.

(3) That isolated cases of beating and looting occurred on the morning of Friday, the 4th October.

(4) That the attacks were directed exclusively against Bengali Hindus.

(5) That where the sole aggressors were the low-class bud-mashes, the Police refused to render any assistance to those molested and assaulted, and to entertain their complaints, though in some cases the offences were committed in full view of the Police.

24. Upon the above findings of facts, we come to the conclusion that whatever reasons there might have been for the interference of the Police with the Beadon Square meeting on the night of the 2nd October, a large number of innocent persons were brutally assaulted, or otherwise subjected to insult and rudeness, without any provocation or justifiable cause. It has not been proved before us that there was the least necessity on the part of the Police for using force or violence ; nor has it been shown that when the meeting was ordered to disperse, there was any resistance on the part of the audience and the speakers, or that any attempt was made to arrest any of the persons taking part in the meeting, or that such attempt, if made, met with resistance from the assembled people. Not a single witness has spoken of any brickbats being thrown at the Police, but all witness agree that on a signal being given by some Police officers, a general attack on Bengalis was commenced.

25. The incidents of the following day, Thursday, the 3rd October, were without a parallel in the history of Calcutta. There was no meeting or gathering of any kind on that day. Yet the fact remains that some fifty shops were broken or trespassed into, and eatables and valuable articles, including cash, were looted or damaged ; and further that innocent passers-by and tramway passengers were attacked, beaten and robbed. The evidence is conclusive that the offenders in some cases included groups of constables in their uniforms with or without their badges. The rest were ruffians and low-class people, such as dhangars, mehters, sweepers, &c.

26. We are satisfied from the evidence of such highly respectable gentlemen as Kumar Manmatha Nath Mitter, Rai Bahadur (witness No 167), Babu Purna Chandra Dev, nephew of the late Dr. Kanai Lal De, Rai Bahadur, C.I.E. (witness No 94), Babu Gourhari Sen, Secretary, Chaitanya Library (witness No 130), Dr. D. N. Chatterji, M.B., C.M. (Edin.) (witness No. 60) and others, that the Police adopted an indifferent attitude towards complaints, and were silent lookers-on of the outrages committed by the gundas. Kumar Manmatha Nath Mitter, as stated in paragraph 15, offered his assistance to the Inspector of the Shampuker Thana to stop the looting, but that officer dismissed him with an evasive and unsatisfactory reply. Other complaints were treated with equal indifference.

27. We should have been glad if we could finish this report only with the findings of facts recorded above. But we feel that we should not be discharging the duty we have undertaken, if we did not record the further conclusion that we have felt constrained to arrive at, viz., that in the looting and rioting of the 3rd October, the Police and the budmash element in the city were intimately associated. It is a well-known fact that the constables of the Calcutta Police force do not include any Bengalis, but are recruited entirely from among up-countrymen.

It has been proved by numerous witnesses that assaults on Bengalis were usually preceded by cries of "Here is a Bengali Sala," &c., and that Bengalis were chiefly selected as victims of the outrages. When complaints were made, the aggrieved persons were mockingly told to apply for redress to the shouters of "Bande Mataram." The statement of Babu Baidyanath Narain Singh, M.A., a Zemindar of Behar, (witness No. 85), to which reference has been made in paragraph 15, is interesting on this point. This witness, on remonstrating with the Police, was told that it was because he was dressed as an up-countryman that he himself escaped molestation, but that if he interfered, he would be similarly dealt with. He added that two European Sergeants and other Police officers were looking on at the assaults.

28. The men assaulted were mostly Hindus, and, as a matter of fact, among the witnesses examined by us, there were only two Mahomedans, one of whom (No. 114) was apparently mistaken for a Hindu, as he had no cap on, and was in consequence assaulted. The other Mahomedan (No. 33) who had deposed before the Hon'ble Mr. Collin, stated before us that his shop was being broken open by 10 or 12 constables with a force of budmashes, and that on paying a bribe of Rs. 10 to a Police Jamadar, the men desisted from carrying off the articles of his shop. This witness complained to the Commissioner of Police and identified the aforesaid Jamadar out of a file of forty Jamadars.

It appears from the evidence before us that in some other cases also, identification might have been made if immediate steps had been taken to find out the culprits, (vide statements of witnesses Nos. 47, 54 and 104).

29. That in assaulting innocent people, the Police could not have acted under bona-fide mistakes, or temporary excitement, is clearly shown by the fact that passengers of the tram-cars were seized, dragged out and beaten. This was done in some cases by gundas, and in some cases by Police Constables. The statement of Babu Soshi Bhusan Soor, late a Municipal Commissioner of Manicktollah and a wealthy tradesman of the town (witness No. 136) is clear on this point. He said that bricks were thrown at the car in which he was travelling, that six constables in uniform and several up-countrymen, not in uniform, dragged the passengers out and assaulted them. The witness was sheltered by some Mahomedan tailors.

30. Reference has already been made in paragraph 10 to the serious injuries, sustained by some of the witnesses examined by us. Day after day, as we sat recording the statements, the most pitiful sights presented themselves before us. An old man of eighty years of age (witness No. 5), a Brahmin Pundit, appeared before us, with his arm in a sling. He had been assaulted by two constables who had hit him in the arm which he had raised to protect his head. Another man of the same age, (witness No 19) bore marks of violence on his shoulder and arm. A man of 61 years of age, (witness No. 24), a pensioner, was so prostrated by his injuries that we were obliged to take his statement on commission at his residence. A grey-haired man of 70 (witness No. 121) appeared before us with his left hand in a sling. He said he had been attacked by constables near Burtollah. One man (witness No. 58), aged 50, had his right arm fractured in consequence of an assault by four constables. Another witness (No. 133), a scion of the Sovabazar Raj family, was mercilessly beaten by constables. He was bedridden for 12 days, had four distinct wounds on his person, and his eye-sight was still dimmed from the effects of the assault. Such cases were numerous. The most pitiable of all, however, was the case of Rajani Kanta Das who subsequently died as the result of the injuries he had received during these riots. We may here mention that the verdict of the Coroner's Jury in this case, as reported in the Press, ascribed his death to "some paharawalla unknown." This poor man was the sole bread-winner of his family.

31. From a careful consideration of the statements made before us, we are of opinion that the Police staff of the Burtolla, Kumartoly, Jorasanko and Shampuker Thanas were specially to blame for the acts complained of.

32. The allegation that the immediate cause of the rioting on the night of the 2nd October was the pelting of stones and brickbats at the Police may be founded on fact, or may have been made to justify the conduct of the Police. We have no evidence on this point before us. The witnesses who were questioned on this point, said that they had not seen stones or brickbats thrown at the Police. Even if the allegation regarding the pelting of stones at Beadon Square at 7-30 p.m., on the 2nd of October be accepted, it would not, in our opinion, justify or explain the damages done to shops, such as the well-known shop of Mullick Bros., at places not in the immediate vicinity of Beadon Square, on the same night; nor would it explain or justify the occurrences of the 3rd and 4th October when, as already stated, no public meeting or assembly took place any where in Calcutta.

Indeed, we have not heard any reasonable explanation of the origin of the disturbances of the 3rd and 4th October. It is to our minds impossible to explain these acts of lawlessness which lasted for several hours together on three successive days in different parts of the town, as due to the excesses of a few constables who had got out of control, or of the criminal classes of the city, before the Police could bring them under check. The first explanation presupposes the presence of other constables and officers, or how could there be any question of some constables getting out of control? If, therefore, there were other constables and officers present, we do not see how the outrages could have lasted so long as they did, nor how some at least of these offending constables could escape arrest by the rest of the Police force. As to the second explanation, it is difficult for us to conceive that the combined ruffianism of the city could succeed in committing the amount and degree of damage that was done in so many different parts of the town, and extending over such a length of time, in spite of the Police force, undoubtedly present in these localities. It is to be noted that for three successive days, the riots raged over a considerable part of the area within the jurisdiction of the Burtolla, Jorasanko, Kumartoli and Shampuker Thanas. If these riots were due to a sudden outburst of lawlessness and were promptly dealt with, they might have been regarded as a regrettable incident which, however, might not have been deemed extraordinary in a large town like Calcutta where there must always be a leaven of the rowdy element. But that the riots should have been repeated, and that the acts of lawlessness should, in many cases, have been perpetrated in full view of the Police, in some with their aid, and in all without check or restraint, for three days together, even after complaints had been made to the Commissioner of Police on the morning of the 3rd October (vide statement of witness No. 94), has created a most painful impression in our minds regarding the organization and discipline of, and the control exercised by superior officers over, the Calcutta Police force. The oldest inhabitants of the town have never witnessed a state of lawlessness, such as that which prevailed in the disturbed area for three successive days. The situation is one which, in our opinion, should be vigorously dealt with, and effective safeguards should be provided against a recurrence of the painful incidents to which we have referred. It is not for us to say what should or should not be done. But it would be most unfortunate if the impression were to go forth that the Police in the metropolis of the Indian Empire were at liberty to commit with impunity acts of the grossest lawlessness. We, therefore, deem it our duty to send a copy of this report to the Local Government in the hope that it will take such steps as will reassure the public mind and restore the public confidence in the capacity and willingness of the Police to preserve law and order within this great city.

CALCUTTA,

The 17th November, 1907.

First Day's Proceedings.

19th October, 1907.

From 12 noon to 3-30 P.M.

1. GOPESWAR MULLICK on solemn affirmation.—

I live at 33-1, Rutton Sircar's Garden Street, Jeweller and Dealer in precious stones, Caste, Suborno Banik. I work in my own house as well as in the shop of Mahatab Chander Sing.

I remember the date on which there was a row in the Beadon Square. I was returning from Surtibagan on Wednesday night at about 9-15 p.m. When I came up to Jorasanko corner I heard people running about and a golmal. On coming up I stopped at the Jorasanko crossing and I found about 200 Constables in uniform, and arranged in file, obstructing the public thoroughfare and I also saw the Constables breaking the glasses of the doors of Mullick Brothers. 3 or 4 Indian and European Inspectors immediately came up and the Constables ceased on a motion from the Inspectors. Just at that moment as I turned round I received a blow on the head from a Constable in uniform. I did not provoke the Constables to beat me. I fell down (shows marks on the right of the head, still fresh): I won't be able to identify the Constable. I rose up and I was again struck on the back. I turned round and found the same Constable giving me the second stroke (shows echymosis on the back). I think it was the same Constable, but am not sure, but it was a Constable. I again fell down; I got up and was struck on the arm by the very Constable who struck me on the back. I went to the house of Rajendralal Dutt, articled clerk to Messrs. Carruthers and Co. I was then reeling and he took me to be drunk. I told him what happened. He poured water on my head and took me in a palki to my house in the neighbourhood. I went to the police office but I was not examined and not called. Dr. Ashutosh Mukerjee treated me. Still pain in the head and wound still an inch deep.

I am nephew of Prof. G. S. Dev, of the General-Assembly's Institution, of 38-1-1, Nilmoney Mitra's Street, Clerk in the office of Jambon and Co. of Bankshall Street.

I remember the day of occurrence. I left office at 5-30 p.m. and was returning to my press at 32, Garanhatta Street at 9-15 p.m. I was returning home and while passing through Nimtollah Street, I saw 4 or 5 Constables in uniform and with Regulation lathies pursuing several Bengalees. I was taken aback and tried to run away. A Constable came up to me, seized both my hands and dealt a blow on my head with a lathie. I fled from the place and went to the house of Babu Monilal Sen of Nimtollah Ghat Street. My injuries were attended to (shows wound on the left side of the head about still $1\frac{1}{2}$ " long and $\frac{1}{2}$ " deep). I am certain it was a Constable in uniform who struck me. My Chudder and shirt were soaked with blood. I was taken to a neighbouring dispensary and was attended there for an hour and a half when I was taken in a gharry to my house. I was treated by Babu Madhu S. Basak L.M.S. for 2 or 3 days. I could not attend to my work. I sent a letter to Babu Nagendra Chunder Bose expressing my inability to teach his boys for 7 days—the letter was published in the Bande Mataram. I went to Babu R. C. Pal and stated the facts to him. Having heard that evidence was being recorded by Mr. Collin, I called at Babu R. C. Pal's but he advised me not to attend the police office, as there Mr. Collin was not inclined to take more evidence. I did not give any cause to the police to assault me. The police did not abuse me while I was assaulted.

I live at 10, Nilmoney Mitra's Street, Employed in Comptroller of India Treasury.

I remember Thursday the second day of occurrence. I was returning by tram. At 6-45 p.m., I reached Beadon Gardens, South Corner. I found several Constables in a row with one Inspector leading them. The Inspector was an Indian. They were going towards the north. The tram-car stopped when I got down at the North-East Corner of the Notun Bazar. I entered the bazar. 3 or 4 Constables passed by my right into the bazar. They had lal pugrees, regulation lathies. I did not notice whether they had belts. They were pursuing some Bengalee gentlemen. Some one from my left struck me. I believe he was a paharawalla—had a lal pugree, with a paharawalla's coat without the belt. I was struck on my left thigh with a regulation lathic (shows the mark and complains of pain—swelling still exists and black mark). I ran and fell into a heap of rubbish; the self-same man struck me on my left elbow (shows a distinct mark). The same man struck on my arm as I raised my hand to protect my head. Twice I was struck on the arm, as I lifted it. I gave no provocation whatsoever. While I was still lying I was again struck a fourth time on my right elbow (shows mark). It was dark and I could not recognise the features of my assailant. I went to a relation's house, Babu Nakur Chand Basak's of Charakdanga Street, near by, and could not go to my house that night, because of pain. I did not go to the police office. I called on Babu R. C. Paul after the inquiry, as I could not go anywhere before that. I attended office on Tuesday i.e., 4 days after the occurrence.

I saw about 125 Constables in uniform except their belts, flourishing their sticks and coming, making a great golmal. Out of fear I stood on the footpath, near the shop. One Constable struck on my head. I bled profusely (shows a big mark) I was shivering and supported myself by holding a wall. I became naked and bandaged my wound with my cloth and went home. I gave no provocation to the Constable. The Inspector passed by in a gharry. I was semi-conscious and can't say what happened (the injury is now about an inch deep). I got a certificate from Dr. Poresh Chandra Dutt L.M.S. and sent to the office and had to absent myself for a week from the office. I was bed-ridden for 8 days. I attended Mr. Collin's enquiry and gave evidence to this effect.

On Wednesday the first day of occurrence at 9-30 p.m., I was going from Gurudas Pal's shop to Mullick Brother's shop to shut up their doors, as I heard some golmal while I was at Pal's shop. As I stepped down from Pal's shop a Constable struck on my right leg. I am positive that the man was a Constable in uniform. He had a lathie in his hand. I then saw a blow aimed at my head. I raised my left hand to ward off the blow. I received the blow on my arm and ran inside Pal's shop. I could not come to Mullick's shops. There was a contusion but no blood was shed (shows the arm still bandaged) I appeared before Mr. Collin and deposed to the same effect.

He got fever from that very night and was treated by Dr. Brommo Narayan. He is unable to move about. My father is 60 years old. I am a shopkeeper at 106, Chasadhobapara Street.

On Thursday at 7 p.m. I went to purchase Khur and Chana at Notun bazar. I saw 8 or 10 Constables standing to the south of Beadon Square. I was going towards the west. All on a sudden, a Constable struck me on my left forearm. The Constable was in full uniform. There was another Bengalee on the road. I implored the Constable not to beat me. Another Constable struck me on my left arm in another place (shows both marks, distinct). I ran away and another Constable struck me on the forehead, (shows a wound on the forehead). There were several Constables and they beat me though I appealed for mercy. The other man was also struck and he fell down. I don't know him. I tried but could not enter the gate of the bazar. I had one ten-rupee note and two rupees for making purchases. I had a gold ring on my finger, and an umbrella in my hand. Two Constables took away all those articles from me. I had no shirt on. The rupees were in my cloth about my lions. A man from the bazar nursed me. I saw the bazar people running away towards মেহাড়াটা (fish market), saying they were being beaten by the police. I went to the Presidency Commissioner's office and said there what I have said here just now.

8. KANILAL DEY on solemn affirmation—

I live at 39-2, Beadon Road—Pleader, Small Cause Court, Calcutta—age 40.

On Wednesday 2nd October, I was going from Notun bazar to my home at 8-30 p.m. Just as I passed the corner of the Beadon Square I saw some disturbance in the Square and I saw people running out from the garden on all sides, chased by Constables in uniform. They were in full uniform with belts and plates. I saw I was in danger. I went to the north side of the Beadon Street and stood on a raised platform in front of a house near Ashu Babu's dispensary. I could not proceed further as people were being beaten by Constables on the East side of the Square. Some 5 or 6 Constables came running chasing some Bengalees. They were going eastward, but all on a sudden they stopped near me. There were others standing near me. The Constables cried out "Beat the Bengalee Salas." In spite of my entreaties they gave me several blows on my left upper arm, (shows big marks on both arms, right leg, left knee, and a swelling on the calf of the left leg and other parts of the body, shows another scar on the head). I got several blows. On receiving blows on the head I fell down senseless. I recovered and ran for my life towards Chitpore Road. I received the blows at 8-45 p.m. and reached home at 11-30 p.m. Blood was streaming out of my head and soaked my clothes, yet each paharawalla I met gave me a blow. I took shelter in a shop in Chitpore road and the shopkeeper attended to my injuries. I was taken to the dispensary of Dr. P. B. Banerjee; the compounders dressed my injuries. I sent for a brother pleader who took me home. I went to Mr. Collin's inquiry and waited there on the 1st day from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. I had to remain standing all the while and I was weak, so I could not give my evidence. I am still very weak. I saw them breaking with my own eyes. They had uniforms except belts. About 20 Constables began to break the glass-panes of my shopdoors and windows. Out of fear I ran inside the shop and kept myself concealed. They did not enter the shop. They broke, from outside, the clocks and glasses. I went to Mr. Collin's enquiry. Name of my firm is "Sett Dutt and Co. watch-makers." I sent a telegram to the Lieutenant-Governor at Darjeeling. Others also sent telegrams informing him about the occurrence. When I reached Grey Street I found about 1,000 people consisting of sweepers, dhangars, low class Mahomedans and 15 or 20 Constables with uniform on and lathies. The rest of the crowd had lathies and brickbats. While inside the car I heard they were crying "Here is a Bengalee Sala going." They struck against the tram panels. The conductor came and said "When did you get in." I told him "you gave me a ticket, don't you know?" I was the only Bengalee in the car. Others also came and attacked me, aimed lathies and threw stones at me which wounded me. I was struck inside the car and then dragged out and struck on the road. While inside the car I was poked with lathies. At Sovabazar Street Corner a Constable struck me with a lathie, I was struck on a finger in the left hand (shows fracture of middle finger in left hand and marks on several parts of the body). Witness No. 24
RAOHA BINODE SEN.

Second Day's Proceedings.

20th October 1907.

From 12 noon to 5 p.m.

Rai Srinath Pal Bahadur was deputed by the Commission to take the deposition of Babu Radhabenode Sen, at 115, Aheeretola Street whose condition was declared serious by his relatives.

24. RADHABINODE SEN on solemn affirmation—

I live at 115, Aheeretola Street—(taken on Commission at his house):—

(Shows injuries in the left knee and the right shoulder and in the back of the waist—can hardly speak).

On Wednesday, at about 8-45 p.m. while I was coming from a trunk-shop at the corner of Chorebagan, I saw Pahrawallahs standing in a file. I was told by a Paharawallah to walk by the other side of the road of the Nimtollah Ghat Street (corner of the Chitpore Road) and while I was so doing I was struck by two paharawallahs on my left knee and right shoulder. An old paharawallah asked the others to stop the beating and I ran away home. I have been bed-ridden since then (condition pale, eyes yellow, limbs emaciated, age 61), and under treatment of Dr. Brahmanarain.

25. A. C. ROY on solemn affirmation—

I live at 25-5, Kundu Lane.

I have got a shoe-factory at 145-4, Lower Chitpore Road—I was one of the speakers in the Beadon Square meeting on Wednesday. I attended the meeting at 8 p.m., I gave a speech and was followed by Basudev, a young man. While he was speaking Police Inspector Fazil shouted out "stop the meeting, stones are being thrown at us." I did not see any stones thrown, nor did anybody else say that stones were being thrown.

Question by Hon'ble R. C. Pal—Are you quite sure that stones were not thrown?

Ans.—I am quite sure that stones were not thrown.

Q.—How do you arrive at that conclusion?

A.—Because the police officer sat near us only 3 or 4 yards from the platform, they sat among the audience.

Q.—By President—Did any body tell him that no stones were thrown?

A.—No opportunity was given as shewn by their subsequent conduct.

Before the order of the Inspector Fazil was hardly finished, some policeman shouted "শত্ৰু" (strike). The policeman was above the rank of paharawallas, and concurrently a whistle was blown. Then the constables began to strike the people with lathies indiscriminately. None of the meeting nor anybody outside gave any provocation. I am quite sure of it. In the hubbub I lost my hat and stick. While I was endeavouring to leave the meeting and run away an old Brahmin showed me his hand and said he was severely beaten in the hand. I was trying to come to the Beadon Street. While I had just left the footpath, I saw 50 policemen rushing towards us and beating people indiscriminately. In order to avoid beating I thought of crossing the road to find shelter. Before I could do so I was struck by a paharawalla in full uniform. I was struck on the left scapula severely. I got only one blow. Pain still exists. I then managed to run away. The Inspector and his men did not give any opportunity of quietly leaving the meeting or returning to it. They attacked by surprise. I don't know whether I scaled over the fencing or passed through the gate. I did not complain to any police officer. I wrote a short letter to the "Bengalee" that very night on the receipt of a note received from Babu Panchcowri Banerjee, Sub-Editor of the "Bengalee." While I was coming away I saw quiet passers-by being struck by paharawallas. I did not appear before Mr. Collin. Inspector Fazil said, "The meeting was getting disorderly and stones were being thrown at him." As a matter of fact the meeting was not getting disorderly, the audience were quite taken by surprise. I further saw from the street that the paharawallahs were striking against the tram car. All this took place at about 9 p.m. I did not notice any lamps being broken. From the position in which I was I could see the tram-cars struck.

ing left forearm in splints). There is a fracture. Dr. Haridhone Datta is treating me. I saw a paharawallah to whom I complained. He asked me to run away otherwise I would be further beaten. Immediately a young Bengali Inspector said "নাগাও সব শালাকে!" (beat all the Salas). At once a paharawalla struck a gentleman, who stood by the side of the Mahomedan Inspector, who fell down and was again struck. There were 3 or 4 paharawallahs near the platform who began striking people who ran away. The Constables who were outside on the road began to enter the park driving the people back. While I was attempting to scale the fencing to the south a paharawalla in full uniform snatched away my silk chuddar and another paharawalla struck me on the left arm (shows mark). My wound is not yet healed up. Then I took shelter in a mistri's shop. I found that on the East of the Square some 10 or 12 Constables were driving away the people towards the Rambagan side brandishing their lathies.

109. SOSI BHUSAN DUTT on solemn affirmation—

I live at 97, Upper Chitpore Road, Tailor's shop.

On Wednesday 2nd October at 8-30 P.M., I was about to leave my shop after closing it, when a tram car came up full of paharawallahs. They got down and beat those who were near the place, just south of Beadon Square. I was given a stroke on left leg.

On Thursday, 3rd October, I closed shop at 7 P.M., and went home where I received information that my shop was looted. I came back at 11 P.M., and found doors broken and articles strewn and cashbox containing Rs. 150 gone, also shirts, etc., worth Rs. 250. I found some Sergeants passing by. I did not go to the Police or Mr. Collin's enquiry, for I thought it of no use, as I won't get any compensation.

110. HARIDAS DUTT on solemn affirmation—

I live at 104, Masjidpara Street. I have a cloth shop at Burrabazar, 21, Monohar Das's Street.

On Thursday at 9-45 P.M., I was coming back from Burrabazar, when near Notunbazar, I heard a golmal and by a circuitous route got to Beadon Street. When near Chaitanya Library, I found 10 or 12 constables and about 50 dhangars. Some dhangars from behind snatched my chudder, as I turned round my umbrella was taken away and many dhangars assaulted me, (shows scar mark on forehead and torn shirt and tattered cloth—torn to rags and all besmeared with blood). I had Rs. 500 in my hand in ten-rupee notes from my shop and two pennyfrocks. They were taken away by the dhangars. One of the constables, before the assault pointed me out, saying, "There is a man going." I did not inform the police as paharawallas gave the order to beat me. The constables were 10 cubits apart from me. The notes were wrapped up in a paper in my hand. They were the proceeds of that day's sale.

111. NARENDRA NATH SETT on solemn affirmation—

I live at 78, Beadon Street, Vakil, High Court.

On Wednesday at 10-30 P.M., some people asked me to get down near Jorasanko corner as marpit was going on, it was alleged, further north. I proceeded through Balaram Dey's Street and at Rambagan Lane crossing, I saw a gentleman coming all besmeared with blood. He told me that he was perhaps the first man assaulted at the meeting by the police. I asked him what the reason was. He said that he could not give any particular reason but that a young speaker was saying something at which the Inspector, who was taking down notes, said he, must stop that sort of speech after which there was a golmal and he was beaten.

On Thursday at dusk, I was at Lalbazar crossing waiting for a tram car. Suddenly I saw, all electric lights of the Lalbazar Police Station put out and I saw native policemen in uniform without belts and trousers coming out with lathies. I saw them coming towards Chitpore Road north. They came running. I got down from a car near Cornwallis Square. At Kasi Ghose's Lane junction, people asked me not to proceed further along Beadon Street. I proceeded and reached home. After 5 minutes I saw a batch of constables making a rush towards Zariff's Lane which is just beside my house. In that lane they assaulted a youngman, whom I know by sight. Half an hour afterwards they made a third attempt to rush into that lane. About a dozen Indian constables with 4 or 5 European Sergeants ran through the lane shouting out 'maro, maro.' Half an hour after the gas light in front of my house was broken by bricks—by whom I can't say. I heard some constables say that it was dark, there and so it was not safe to go there.

On Wednesday at 9-30 P.M., I was coming on foot from Burrabazar. When near Jorasanko corner, about 20 or 25 constables in full uniform assaulted me with sticks in two places on head and back, (shows scar on head, one not yet healed and complains of pain on sides). I was under medical treatment for 8 days and was unable to work. I had one rupee change in my pocket, out of which, annas 14-3, was snatched away when I was unconscious. I was helped by a passer-by and took shelter in Baburam's shop, where there were 3 or 4 others in similar condition.

I am a native of Cawnpore. I am employed as a cook of S. C. Biswas, Esq., Bar-at-law, Beadon Street.

Early Friday morning, at about 5 A.M., I was going to bathe in the Ganges, when I found 50 or 60 constables with lathies sitting, lying, etc., at Beadon Square crossing with European Sergeants. Constables challenged me, I said, I was a poor Brahmin. I was struck by several constables, (big scar and red mark on right leg). I fell down. For 12 days, the leg was much swollen. Those constables standing all ran to beat me, those lying down did not come up. I am under treatment of Dr. M. Bannerji. My age is 50 years. I said I was not a Bengalee and was going with flowers to perform Tarpan. They did not speak much, but assaulted me (still walking with difficulty).

I was at once arrested as those chased could not be arrested. I said that my shop was in front. Whereupon the constables struck me on the chest, (6" scar on chest). Another constable struck me on the forehead, (shows mark). I was taken to a grog shop beside the Notunbazar where 42 people were kept in custody. Then we were taken to the Jorasanko Thana. On Friday at 9 P.M., I was released on bail of Rs. 100. We were locked up in a small room. On Saturday, I was placed before the Commissioner who asked me to appear on Monday to stand my trial. I am enlarged on bail of Rs. 300 and the 24th instant was fixed for hearing the case on a charge under section 143 and 147 I. P. Code. I showed my marks to the Inspector.

Several people removed rice from the shop and filled their baskets and bags with flour, sugar, spices, etc. This loss amounts to about Rs. 200 and cash Rs. 434 also was taken away from a box. I deposed before Mr. Collin to the same effect. We then concealed ourselves behind rice bags. Police helped the looting on entering the shop. At 1-30 A.M., only gundas—about 35 men—dhangars and low class Mahomedans of Nikari para, came near our shop. I can recognise them if I see, but cannot recognise the constables. The gundas again looted the shop. I then went to the Shampukur Thana but they did not record anything that night. Next day morning I went at 7 A.M. I had to wait till 12 noon, as there were others. My statement was recorded not in a book but in a piece of paper. They did not investigate. Some one from the road cried out "One Bengalee Sala going." One constable beat me on the head (shows scar, 2" long) I got another stroke on the head from the same man (shows another scar 2½" long not healed up—the former on the right side and the latter on the left). Then 7 or 8 gundas with small lathies surrounded me and struck me (shows wound on right upper arm). A new silk chaddar was snatched away from my persons by the gundas. I was made naked and the wearing cloth was taken away. I went to a neighbour Troylokya Nath Roy Chowdhury of 55, Sovabazar Street who gave me a cloth. I sent information to the Thana, I could not go owing to profuse bleeding. I was sent by my friends to Butto Kristo Pal's dispensary. The wounds were dressed there I was bedridden for 8 days. My loss amounts to Rs. 500.

(This witness said at the beginning that he was afraid to depose as he did not inform the police at the time and many people told him that he would fall into difficulties if he came before us. We assured him that he had no anxiety on that account).

I live at 30, Hazra Road, Bhowanipore. I have a Biscuit-shop at Canning Street.

I got on the ledge of a grog-shop, 5 or 6 constables passed by me. Then one constable said "you Sala" and gave me a thrust on the chest (complains of pain in the chest still). Another constable dealt a blow on the left knee (shows swelling and mark). I protected the part with an umbrella which broke. I entered a basket shop where I became senseless. (Taken at his house on commission by the Hon'ble R. C. Pal.)—

On Thursday, about an hour after candle-light some people near the sweetmeat shop, next door, cried "The military are coming" (on seeing some European Sergeants). Within a few seconds several European Sergeants, about 30 in number, and as many constables charged the crowd in front of my house up to the Minerva Theatre. The Sergeants were there only for a few minutes. About 25 or 30 constables were left under the verandah of the Chaitanya Library just in front of my verandah. Within a minute or two after the Sergeants left, I found a constable picking up something and a brick was thrown breaking the railing of my second storey verandah. A few minutes after brickbats were again thrown and glass panes were broken. Several people were beaten in front of my house by some upcountry goondas who looked very much like constables without uniforms. All this happened within view of the constables who took no notice of it. I distinctly saw the first brick was thrown by a constable.

I complained to Superintendent Aldridge who saw me on the 15th October. He said he had punished the delinquent paharavallas. One man was made naked and he ran by Ramcharan Ghose's Lane. I saw constables beating the passers-by. The beating was begun by the goondas and in one case a constable gave ready help to the goondas.

On the afternoon of the 3rd instant I left my house for Burrabazar for Durga pujah purchases. I had with me my youngest brother Radha Ballab aged 13 years. We were returning home in a Belgachia Car at 8-15 P.M., after the purchase to the value of Rs. 30. I had with me Rs. 20 in my waist cloth. At Grey Street junction a crowd among whom I found many paharawallas with lathies stopped the car. Everyone began to run away. Every one was assaulted. I was defending my younger brother and myself. Constables with uniform were beating me. This I saw distinctly. I became unconscious; then I found all my articles and cash taken away by constables and the crowd. My clothes were besmeared with blood. I took refuge with my brother in Grey Street in the house of Babu Radhica Lal Roy, zemindar. There I fell in a swoon. On regaining my senses I found I was carried inside the house. There were 3 men in the house who closed the door, but the door was broken open and gundas entered our house. I ran away from behind the house. My room was open. My deraj was broken open Rs. 11, silver beecha (waist chain) and one pair armlet (6 varis) and some utensils were taken away. I could hear the sound of the breaking from the place where I hid myself near a drain. I could not approach through fear. Bindu's articles were taken away. Her room was broken open and ornaments were taken away from her person. Except Bindu who shut herself in her room all of the house ran away.

I live at 97, Cornwallis Street. I am an engineer. I have passed the C. E. Examination from the Roorkee C. E. College.

On Thursday at 9 p.m., I was coming home by a down Shambazar car. When the car reached Burtolla Thana, about 6 men with lathies got into the car. There was a golmal and two other passengers ran away. I was alone. These six men came 4 with naked bodies and two with banyans on and all with regulation lathies. (The taller 2 appeared to me to be constables, as they got on from opposite the thana and they came from near 4 other paharawallas who were with regulation lathies near the gate). Three got down and went towards the 2nd class car. I removed myself towards the railings. The three men left with me began to assault me with lathie. 20 or 25 strokes fell on me. I had a cane with me with which I warded off the blows, and the lathis fell on my hand and other parts of the body. Some people from behind were dragging me by my shirt. The car was then very slowly moving on. The assault took place 15 yards from the thana gate. (Marks on all fingers of the right hand—swelling still exists, black mark on the left wrist). One man cried out asking others to see whether I had anything with me. The man who seemed to be a constable caught hold of my hand and snatched away a purse containing Rs. 2-8 and a handkerchief from my breast pocket. I asked them why I was further assaulted as everything I had was taken away. There were some 10 or 12 men in the trailer, where also a golmal was going on. The men went towards that car snatching away my stick. The men who were pulling by shirt from behind tore my shirt, attempted to take my wearing cloth but failed. I saw one man (a Bengalee) from the trailer car dragged down, felled on the footpath and mercilessly beaten. The car proceeded and I went along with it. I deposed to Mr. Collin to the same effect, but he did not record all I said, though I protested. He said it was his business to record, and mine to make a statement.

On Thursday, 3rd October at 7-15 p.m., I was coming by Belgachia car, a European was in the car (I believe, it was the gentleman who wrote in the "Englishman"). Near Beneatollah, bricks were thrown at the car. When near Grey Street crossing a crowd of 6 constables in uniform and several up-country men (who appeared to be constables not in uniform) began to strike the passengers whom they dragged down. The constables broke the electric lights of the car. This I saw distinctly. The men snatched away my chudder, stick, and handkerchief in the presence of the constables. I concealed myself beside the driver for some time, but the driver asked me to shift, otherwise I would be beaten. One significant fact I noticed, was, the driver was not assaulted. I got down on the Chitpore Road. I was assaulted on the car in ten places, (marks disappear except one on the forehead and one on left leg, shows). I got down bleeding. Some Mahomedan durjees sheltered me, and gave me a punkha. I found Jadab Krishna Banerjee passing by and I appealed to him for help. He took me to Babu Beharilall Pal's house (Interpreter High Court). From there, I went in a doctor's carriage to my house. Rs. 920 in my waist were saved. (Rs. 870 in small notes and Rs. 50 in one note), as they were secure in my waist cloth. I wanted to go to Mr. Collin but the enquiry was finished very early, so I did not go.

Then they moved towards us, Babu Bhupendra Nath Sen, an Attorney, and myself. The jamadar muttered something. One policeman caught hold of my stick. I refused to part with it. The jamadar (who is a tall, fat man, whom I can identify and who, on an enquiry, I came to know, belong to the Shampookoor Thana) said “হেঁতু গর” (part with it, you pig). Then the jamadar struck on my right forearm. It was swollen at that time. I left my stick and came away. I had pain for about ten days. There was a European with us in the 1st class. When the car passed the Beadon Square 3 or 4 brickbats fell on the car. We raised the shutters. The European was struck on the cheek beneath the right eye. Blood came out. We nursed him. Then we lowered down the shutters and sat down as the conductor asked us to do so. When near the Grey Street crossing constables in uniform and badmashes altogether about 300, came upon the car, some 10 or 12, entered the car. We then formed a cordon round the European to protect him from assault. The badmashes came into the car. Seeing the golmal, got down and ran towards Radhica Roy's house where I had business. Then they snatched away the notes from my waist and one of the constables ran away. They did not take the three rupees. That constable threw away the contracts. I picked them up and ran after the running constable. The other constable began then to strike me with lathie on my head, both sides and near the ear, and shoulder, I then ran away fast for life as I was then trembling and somewhat stunned. As I was running I met a jemadar, who did not allow me to run further. I told him what had happened. He made me sit, saying he would fetch my headdress, notes and chaddar. Ten minutes after the jemadar returned with my pugree and gave it to me, saying he could not find the notes and the chaddar. He went with me to Ahiritollah crossing.
